hello all

via email from Linda Whitesel and phone call to Marilyn Miller, we got a report of a male Painted Bunting in Milroy, PA they took a picture and there is no doubt of the ID of the bird. Picture was taken by Fran Shirk.

The bird was spotted at their feeders for 2 days, 3/6 and 3/7 of 2011, by Dwaine & Fran Shirk of Milroy, PA. They said a snow front was coming the first day, but they didn't get any, but the 2nd day they got a fine snow which allowed them to enjoy the bird for 2 days.

word to a birder took until recently, but at least we have confirmed the bird and sighting.
